

Motor fan Charlie with some of his 751 Hot Wheels cars

A gilder applies a layer of gold to Coronation mugs at Duchess Pottery, Stoke-On-Trent

Joseph Walshe

Photographer | Birmingham

Joseph's photographic career began during his school years, he later went on to complete a degree in Photojournalism and Documentary Photography at the University of Gloucestershire, where he was shortlisted for the Tom Stoddart award in 2021. Post-university he was catapulted into the bustling newsroom of national newspaper in the heart of London, whereafter he became a member of SWNS. An adept photographer who has shown flexibility throughout briefs, Joseph has confidence making his subject feel comfortable in front of the lens.

EXPERTISE

Hardcore dedication

Committed photojournalist

Cheerful cameraman

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Shortlisted, Tom Stoddart award 2021

GEAR

- Canon 5D Mk2
- Canon 6D
- Speedlight

Eleven-year-old Joe (centre) who is determined to be a farmer

Being a photographer is a pass to explore the lives of interesting people. Being based in the Midlands, I could be photographing cheese-rolling in Gloucestershire one day, then shooting award-winning cottages in Yorkshire the next.

Qswns

