Tom arranged special permission to attend a couple's lonely funeral during the pandemic

Tom Maddick

Photographer | Nottingham

Tom creates evocative narratives that bring to life the stories he depicts. He has been at SWNS for over ten years as our Chief Photographer working on project in the UK and around the world. He's covered highly sensitive events - like the refugee crisis arising out of the Russia-Ukraine war - and has worked with an array of commercial clients including Stella Artois, Burger King and Heck.

Tom documented the situation at the border with Poland as missiles rained on Ukraine
